Vermont COVID Emergency Mortgage Assistance Program

- The Vermont COVID Emergency Mortgage Assistance Program was established using coronavirus relief funds allocated to the State of Vermont to provide financial assistance to stabilize low- and moderate-income homeowners in Vermont.
- This program is for persons who are behind on their home mortgages.
- If you are a renter, or if you own a mobile home in a mobile home park, please contact the Vermont State Housing Authority by phone at 802-828-2040 or 802-828-1650 or 802-828-5596, to discuss obtaining help with your rental payments.
- For more information visit <https://www.vhfa.org/map/> or contact your Work United Resource Coordinator.

LISTEN Community Services is Here for You

For close to 50 years, LISTEN Community Services has been on the frontlines providing vital support for people in the Upper Valley who are facing crisis. LISTEN's mission has always been important; today, it may be more so than ever before as the coronavirus is challenging many people in the region who now find themselves without work or with bills mounting.

This is a time of worry for all of us. LISTEN is here to help. For food, personal care items, or gently used items, please stop by.

- The food pantry in Lebanon is free to all and open from 10am-4pm on Monday-Friday.
- A free meal is served Monday-Saturday on a "to go" basis from 5-5:30pm from the dinner hall in White River Junction.
- The thrifts stores in Lebanon and Canaan are open and donations are being accepted. Hours are posted on LISTEN's website at www.listencs.org.

If you need assistance to stay in your home, pay for other bills, or need other resources, LISTEN's service coordinators are here to problem solve with you. Please call (603) 448-4553 to make an appointment.

To learn more about LISTEN and the vital services they provide, visit their Facebook page or website.

MEET YOUR WORK UNITED RESOURCE COORDINATORS

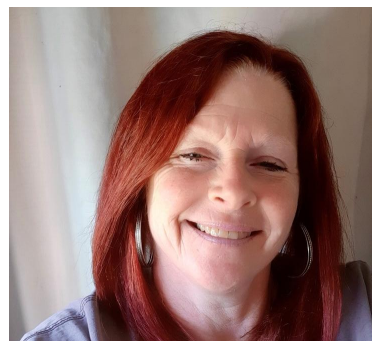

We have been working virtually since March but are excited to get back into the workplace and see YOU in PERSON! Plans are in the works to get our Resource Coordinators back into companies for face-to-face visits (mask-covered faces, of course.)

We look forward to seeing you soon!

NEW TO THE TEAM!

Join us in welcoming Faith Dubois to the Work United family!

Starting July 6th, Faith will be working with Pru Pease in our Upper Valley companies. She comes to us with years of Resource Coordination experience. She'll know just how to find the answers you need!

Welcome Faith!
