Mark and Sally Stebbins have personally been members of the Alexis de Tocqueville Society and Loyal Contributors to United Way for more than 20 years. As owners of PROCON, they have encouraged their employees to give back to the community during their annual United Way workplace campaign.

For the second year in a row, the Stebbins family hope to inspire you to contribute to Granite United Way through their Challenge Match.

“Philanthropy has been an important value in our family. Our parents instilled in us the importance of giving back to our community and we want to encourage others to do the same.”
